Make your guest list

Friends, family, neighbors, co-workers – there are so many women in your life who would love Thirty-One! Use the tool below to help you think of people you can invite to your party.

Inviting 40 guests is the best way to make sure you have 10-15 people at your party – which is the perfect size to ensure a great time for everyone invited, plus great rewards for you!

Party Tip #1

The more the merrier!

Send 40+ invites, and make sure to follow up personally with the VIPs on your guest list. It wouldn't be a party without them!

Party Tip #2

Share your favorites.

Talk with your Consultant about which products you think will be a hit at your party.

Party Tip #3

Build excitement!

A few days before your party, send guests a quick text or social media message to let them know how much you're looking forward to it.
